Lady Helen's Hall is positioned within the heart of Trysull Village and has undergone a beautiful restoration, fusing many original features with modern living. Externally the barn is approached via communal electric gates and winding driveway and offers three parking bays, a private front courtyard and access to the shared walled garden. Internally you enter the grand hallway, with double glass doors opening into the living room. Off the hallway is a single bedroom with ensuite and ample storage. The living room is open plan with the contemporary family kitchen, which is complete with a full range of modern appliances, island breakfast bar and French doors opening into the private courtyard. There is also a guest
