"Magazine worthy styling" this stunning family home has been cleverly renovated and extended with style and flair. Designed with contemporary style living in mind it features a light and open living space with superb connection to the outside ideal for entertaining.

The current owners have carried out a total transformation from the original house with most of the works being carried out over the last two years and have created a simply stunning family home with impeccable finish and attention to detail. They have added an area for large scale entertaining across the back of the house whilst managing to retain the feel of a cosy family home.

All of this combined with a particularly secluded plot for this development, this is undoubtedly one of the finest houses locally and offers a unique opportunity to move into a high quality family home with professionally styled interiors at a convenient and popular location.

The house enjoys a secluded position off a private spur with just two houses and a pleasing aspect to the front. There is a block paved driveway comfortably offering parking for three cars with an additional parking for another three cars opposite, again quite unique on this development.
