FEATURES

Bridgend Cottage is a charming Grade II listed end of terrace cottage dating back to the 16th century, within the conservation area having two bedrooms and three reception rooms along with gardens to the rear. Having been upgraded, the cottage still retains many of the original features to include the large exposed fireplaces and exposed beams and timbers throughout.

ACCOMMODATION

From Cartway, the front door opens into the ground floor sitting room with windows to the front elevation and a corner feature fireplace. Accessed from here is a most useful large store room and a guest cloakroom/WC. Stairs rise to the first floor where there is a living room having a large exposed brick fireplace with log burner and a window looking out into the rear courtyard. Off the living room is a separate dining room overlooking the front elevation, feature fireplace and stairs off to the bedrooms. The kitchen extends to the rear, with quarry tiled floor, fitted with a range of matching cabinets, solid wood work tops, inset Belfast sink unit, microwave and a gas fired AGA. A stable door gives access to the courtyard and garden. Extending through is an inner hall with boiler cupboard and house bathroom fitted with a suite to include a WC, wash hand basin and a bath with shower over.

From the dining room stairs rise to the second floor landing with two double bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a walk in wardrobe and stairs that lead off to the attic room which is currently being used as a home office with sky light.

OUTSIDE

The rear garden is accessed from the kitchen via a stable door. There is an enclosed courtyard, enjoying a most private aspect with steps leading to a good sized garden area having been landscaped to offer low maintenance upkeep with patio and gravelled seating areas, decked terrace along with a timber shed and small store. Parking permits are available from the Shropshire Council for resident parking nearby.
