LOCATION

St Leonards Close is a sought after High Town location in the centre of this historic market town with views of St Leonard's Church. Tucked away, just off the High Street, this very unique location provides the freedom to participate on foot the towns excellent range of facilities that include a large selection of independent shops, pubs/bars, cafés and restaurants. Along with a selection of primary and secondary schooling, healthcare services, hospital and an array of sports facilities and golf clubs. There are also many attractions for visitors such as the Severn Valley Railway, Northgate museum, funicular cliff railway and River Severn walks and cycle routes.

ACCOMMODATION

On entering the property, there is an entrance hallway with stairs leading to the first floor. A door leads into the front-facing lounge, which features a sash window overlooking St Leonards Close and a coal-effect gas fireplace. To the rear, the modern breakfast kitchen benefits from French doors opening into the courtyard. It is well-equipped with matching base and wall units, worktops with a breakfast bar, and integrated appliances including an oven/grill, hob with extractor, wine fridge, dishwasher, and fridge/freezer.

From the hallway, stairs lead to the first floor which offers two generously sized double bedrooms and a contemporary shower room featuring a white suite comprising a WC, pedestal wash hand basin, walk-in shower, and a heated towel rail. A further staircase rises to the second floor, where a useful storage cupboard is located on the landing. A door opens into the principal suite, enjoying direct views of St Leonards Church. The suite is complemented by a stylish en-suite bathroom fitted with a free-standing bath, WC, hand basin, and a corner shower.

OUTSIDE

French doors from the kitchen open into the rear courtyard, which is paved and enclosed by a walled boundary, offering a pleasant and private outdoor space—ideal for al fresco dining or relaxing.
