Barns for Conversion Stockton, Newport, Shropshire, TF10 9BA

A substantial range of former agricultural outbuildings, for which planning permission has been granted for conversion to provide two three bedroom properties in a large plot of just under one acre in total.

PLANNING PERMISSION

Planning Permission has been granted by Telford and Wrekin Co-operative Council for the "Conversion of 2no. existing farm buildings to 2no. dwellings and associated works"
Application No: TWC/2024/0857
Date of Decision: 15/01/2025

The entire estate stands within substantial grounds of just over two and a half acres in total.

OUTSIDE

The proposed plans provide for two, semi detached three bedroom houses with well proportioned rooms over both ground and first floors. Each property will benefit from a private drive to the front providing ample off street parking and turning space together with front lawns and rear gardens.

The entire site stands in approximately 0.98 acres with the potential for an adjoining area of woodland to be shared between the two properties or attached to one property in particular, according to buyers own preferences.
