LOCATION

Brockton is a small hamlet that lies within the beautiful Corvedale South West of the medieval market town of Much Wenlock. Brockton offers a local pub/restaurant within walking distance along with a primary school and nursery. The area is particularly known for it's abundance of countryside walks and outdoor activities lying between Wenlock Edge and the Cleve Hills. The pretty market town of Much Wenlock provides all day to day needs including shopping, tearooms, doctors, dentist, weekly markets and schooling for all ages. Further afield are Independent schools including Wrekin, Prestfelde, Shrewsbury School and Shrewsbury High School. Other towns such as Bridgnorth, Ludlow and Shrewsbury are within an easy drive.

ACCOMMODATION

Approached via a path through the front garden, the front entrance opens into a hallway, with stairs rising to the first floor.

To the ground floor, the lounge offers a cosy atmosphere and features an inset wood-burning stove. The kitchen, enjoying a bright dual aspect, is fitted with a range of base and wall units, worktops, a sink unit, and space for appliances. Extending off the kitchen is the dining room benefitting from attractive quarry tile flooring and a window that provides natural light.

Upstairs, the first floor accommodates three bedrooms, one of which includes a fitted double wardrobe. The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising a WC, hand basin, and a bath with a shower over and a useful airing cupboard. The boarded loft offers essential additional storage.

OUTSIDE

Accessed off the road there is a private driveway to the rear providing off road parking with gated access into the rear garden. Mainly laid to lawn, the garden is enclosed by picket fencing allowing an open outlook to the fields beyond. The lawn is edged with planted borders and a patio dining terrace. The garden extends down the side of the property where there is a raised vegetable patch, log store and the external boiler.
