LOCATION

The village of Highley is located approximately seven miles from the market town of Bridgnorth and is surrounded by the rolling countryside of Shropshire. The village enjoys convenient access to the West Midlands conurbation while also having access to an abundance of countryside walks, the River Severn and the renowned Severn Valley Railway, offering an ideal balance of town and country living.

Highley provides a comprehensive range of local amenities, including shops, a primary school, medical practice a golf club, and excellent leisure facilities with a swimming pool at the Severn Centre. Scenic riverside walks, traditional country pubs and the steam railway station are all within easy walking distance of the property.

ACCOMMODATION

A pathway leads through the front garden to the main entrance. Upon entering the property, there is an entrance hall with cloak and boot storage. A further door opens into the lounge, where a front south facing window provides natural light and an exposed brick fireplace housing a cast-iron wood burning stove. The room also features exposed floorboards.

An inner hall provides stairs to the first floor and a door opening through to the spacious open-plan dining kitchen, laid with traditional quarry tiles and featuring a cast-iron Hobbs & Co Blackheath range stove. The kitchen has been extended to create a generous everyday dining area with the kitchen beyond. A useful pantry located beneath the stairs provides excellent storage. A rear door offers direct access to the garden, and off the kitchen is a convenient ground-floor shower room.

To the first floor is the principal double bedroom, enjoying views over the front elevation and benefiting from a built-in wardrobe. Across the landing is a further bedroom and a bathroom fitted with a suite comprising a WC, hand basin, freestanding bath, heated towel rail and an attractive feature fireplace. From the landing, a door provides access to a staircase rising to the second floor attic bedroom, which offers a generous open plan space with useful eaves storage, further original fireplace and windows to both the front and rear elevations, enjoying elevated views.

OUTSIDE

The L-shaped garden extends to the rear and enjoys a scenic woodland backdrop. The garden offers a variety of areas including a lawn and tiered terraces incorporating a wildlife pond, established fruit trees, vegetable patch and a greenhouse. There is also a useful shed/workshop with power and lighting connected, together with cold water taps. Steps lead down through the terraces to a large garage/workshop with high ceiling point, providing excellent storage, fitted with an up-and-over door and benefitting from power and lighting.

NB Please note that there is a right of way to the rear for No. 3 and the neighbouring property.
