LOCATION

Beckbury is a charming and picturesque village nestled within the rolling Shropshire countryside, offering a peaceful rural lifestyle while remaining conveniently close to major commercial centres, the M54, and the wider motorway network. The village itself provides a range of amenities including a church, primary school, village hall, pub, and community shop. Nearby, the award winning David Austin Roses plant centre offers beautifully maintained gardens, a gift shop, and a popular restaurant.

ACCOMMODATION

From the enclosed entrance porch, the front door opens into a welcoming lounge featuring wooden flooring and stairs rising to the first floor. A central fireplace houses a log burning stove, creating an attractive focal point. Beyond is an open plan dining kitchen, finished throughout with engineered oak flooring. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall units, complemented by solid wood worktops, a sink unit, and space for appliances. The dining area benefits from an exposed brick fireplace and French patio doors opening onto the rear courtyard. A guest cloakroom/WC completes the ground floor accommodation.

From the first floor landing, doors lead to the principal double bedroom, which enjoys an outlook over the rear garden and views beyond. The second double bedroom overlooks the front aspect and benefits from private en-suite facilities, while the third bedroom also enjoys rear-facing views. The spacious landing provides a versatile area ideal for use as a study space if required. The family bathroom is fitted with a pedestal wash hand basin, WC, and a bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

The cottage is set back behind pretty wrought iron railings, with a pedestrian gate and pathway leading to the front entrance. Gated side access leads to the rear, where a generous garden extends and backs onto open countryside. Immediately to the rear of the property, a paved courtyard garden provides a private outdoor seating area and access to a brick built outbuilding, formerly the original piggery with full head height. Beyond, the garden continues with a lawned area, well stocked borders, and an attractive rear aspect enjoying far reaching views across the Shropshire countryside. At the far end of the garden stands a large timber outbuilding in need of renovation, with gated access onto the adjacent track, over which the owners benefit from a right of way.
