165 Penn Road, Penn, Wolverhampton, WV3 0EQ

A substantial period residence which is currently arranged to provide a large four bedroom family home with two, self contained adjoining apartments to the rear.

A comprehensive scheme of refurbishment is required throughout with the potential to create three independent residences which would be ideal for extended family living or, equally, the opportunity to incorporate the apartments into the main house to create a fine individual residence.

The property stands in a sought after location, next door to The Royal School, and is within easy reach of all local facilities and amenities.

The area is particularly well served by schooling in both sectors and regular bus services run along the length of the Penn Road.
